

Elenore is responsible for implementing Fengate's ESG programs and initiatives with a focus on residential properties. Her role includes collaborating with cross-functional teams to enhance sustainability practices, leading ESG data management and communicating progress to stakeholders.

Prior to joining Fengate, Elenore worked at Starlight Investments delivering on their ESG strategy through various projects including climate resilience planning, development of a decarbonization roadmap, ESG reporting, and sustainability training.

Elenore holds an Honours Bachelor of Science from the University of Toronto and a Masters of Environment and Sustainability from the University of Western Ontario.

Elenore Breslow

Manager, ESG and Sustainability