

Sarah focuses on originations, the evaluation and identification of new investment opportunities, and plays a role in the broader private equity group strategy and deal execution.

Prior to joining Fengate in 2023, Sarah worked at Scotiabank within their internal management consulting group, supporting the C-suite team on growth strategy for business lines and through leadership successions.

Sarah holds an Honours Business Administration with Distinction from the Ivey Business School at Western University.

Sarah Peccia

Associate, Originations