

Jennevie Virata is responsible for Fengate Real Estate's marketing and communications program. She works closely with the real estate and marketing teams to build and implement marketing strategies and initiatives for Fengate Real Estate's investment, development, and asset management portfolio.

Jennevie brings over ten years of experience in residential and commercial real estate marketing to this role. Prior to joining Fengate, Jennevie was part of Colliers International's Marketing Studio where she led the development and execution of marketing campaigns and real estate branding projects for office, industrial, and multifamily assets. She graduated from Seneca College with High Honours in International Business and holds a post-graduate certificate in Digital Media Skills from OCAD University.

Jennevie Virata

Director, Marketing and Communications,
Real Estate