

Mark is a member of the Fengate infrastructure investments team and is responsible for bidding, structuring, and execution of project opportunities, with a focus on the P3 space.

Prior to joining Fengate in 2022, Mark spent 10 years at Plenary Americas, most recently as an assistant vice president responsible for origination, development, structuring, financial advisory, and equity investment for P3 projects.

Mark is a CFA charterholder, and holds an Honours Bachelor of Mathematics from the University of Waterloo, specializing in Financial Analysis and Risk Management.

Mark Walker

Vice President, P3 Investments