

Mark is a seasoned real estate professional with experience in North America, Asia, and the Middle East. His professional background includes a variety of asset classes from multifamily, retail, retirement, and industrial developments.

Mark focuses on project implementation, providing development advisory, and management of the completion of under construction projects throughout the Fengate portfolio.

Mark is a graduate of TMU School of Urban and Regional Planning.

Mark Sim

Director, Development